Dear Paul:

Many thanks for your note of 7 February. I felt that the dinner was really useful and I want to assure you that all our boys there were tremendously encouraged by the reaction of your Group to what they were trying to accomplish to carry out the report. I hope we can have another get together in about six months.

Let me know when you get back from your brief holiday.

Faithfully yours,

Dear Mr. Dulles:

I should like to say again how much I enjoyed the dinner last Friday evening. It was very enjoyable from the social angle and very important with respect to the matters in which we are all interested.

I expect to be out of touch, more or less, between February eleventh and nineteenth as I am going to take a little "breather" in the form of a short cruise. I shall be in touch with people in the shop both before and after I go.

Kindest regards,

Sincerely yours,
